Drawn into the world of sculptures, paintings & artists

This unique property lives and breathes art. The link with it and those who make it, dates back to when the hotel first opened in 1984 and one of the artists living in the village suggested to the former owner that it would be an ideal place to showcase the work of the young artists working in and around Deià. Since then, an impressive art collection has grown and today some 800 original canvases grace the white walls of the buildings.

The curious type who likes to do something different and is on top of this an art lover should certainly not miss that activity in the shape of an alternative culinary journey throughout the beautiful property of this mountain hide-away. Whether sipping a cocktail by a Miró or sampling a starter by an Arturo Rhodes: this exceptional Art & Dine experience á la Belmond leads its participants via the hotel's most striking artworks, while serving exquisite food and drink at every stop.

The main course, can then be savoured next to the sprawling's property gourmet restaurant El Olivo, and more specifically at a table among the easels and surrounded by art in the studio of yet another of the hotel's resident artists, Alan Hydes.
