Honouring La Residencia's strong links with the artist Joan Miró and his family, this suite offers an idyllic, relaxing retreat. Miró's creativity is celebrated across the island, but La Residencia is privileged to house the biggest collection of Miró artworks of any hotel. Thirty-three of the artist's handpicked pieces, on loan from Successió Miró since 2017, are displayed in Café Miró, a cultural platform devoted to his world. Guests of the Miró Suite are invited to admire these works privately, enlightened by our resident artist and Miró expert, Juan Waelder. The one-bedroom suite offers ample space to unwind, with a generous lounge, terrace, private pool and garden. Set in our Son Fony building, it affords stunning village and mountain views. Alongside the plush textiles and authentic Mallorquin décor, splashes of colour and whimsy are added by Miró artworks, coffee-table tomes and a unique, limited-edition tea set based on the artist's iconic Sans Titre 1952 - the perfect way to savour Miró's inimitable magic.
