JIMBARAN PURI A BELMOND HOTEL BALI

GETTING MARRIED IN BALI

To get legally married in Bali you are required to have both a religious and civil ceremony. In Indonesia, the bride and groom need to declare the same religion. The following religions are recognised: Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Christianity (Protestant and Catholic).

The religious ceremony and the legal ceremony must be held at the same location on the same day.

However, you can also have a memorable symbolic wedding ceremony in Bali without getting legally married. Many couples perform a legal marriage and complete the required paperwork back home, then have a non-legally binding blessing ceremony or commitment ceremony in Bali.

LOCATIONS FOR CEREMONIES AND RECEPTIONS

The marriage ceremony can take place anywhere, as long as the local registry office has been informed of the address, date and time, and has agreed to send an official to conduct the ceremony. The resort has space to accommodate up to 150 guests for a wedding ceremony and up to 200 guests for a reception.
