continues the train's legacy as a trailblazer of slow luxury travel to iconic destinations including Amsterdam, Cannes, and Istanbul, and further strengthens its prestigious presence in Italy.

Alongside this inaugural Tuscany journey, the train will celebrate the return of its much-loved Portofino route culminating at the iconic Splendido, A Belmond Hotel. First launched in 2024, the route will make its anticipated return next June.

LEGENDARY ENCOUNTERS: A JOURNEY TO THE HEART OF TUSCANY

For the first time in its history, the Venice Simplon-Orient-Express will depart Paris on 11 May travelling through the rolling hills of Tuscany ending at Castello di Casole on 12 May. This is Belmond's breathtaking 1,300-hectare farm estate, allowing guests to experience the romance and storied history of both destinations and legendary properties.

The journey begins in Paris with a champagne welcome as guests settle into their cabins with the choice of three lavish accommodations including the characterful Historic Cabins, the Suites, and the opulent Grand Suites.

Guests begin their journey over pastries, tea, and coffee whilst admiring the timeless beauty of the countryside through their windows. As night falls, Chef Jean Imbert prepares an exceptional menu inspired by the regions the train travels through. In the famous Bar Car '3674', drinks continue to flow throughout the night, over live piano music.

Awakened by idyllic Italian vistas, a leisurely breakfast is served in the comfort of the cabins as the train makes its way towards the city of Arezzo. Here, a transfer awaits to lead travellers through the lush Tuscan landscape towards the medieval city of Siena where a typical local lunch sets the stage for a cultural afternoon. Guests will embark on a private guided tour of Siena's UNESCO-listed historic centre, celebrated for its architectural grandeur and timeless allure, an exclusive visit to Palazzo Pannocchieschi d'Elci, a majestic 13th-century aristocratic palace overlooking Piazza del Campo, and the iconic site of the world-famous Palio di Siena horse race.

The day concludes at Castello di Casole, Belmond's farm estate surrounded by verdant vineyards, olive groves, and abundant wildlife, dating back to Etruscan times. Guests will settle into enchanting Suites where they will spend two luxurious nights.

In the evening, an exclusive stargazing session will take place in the outdoor amphitheatre, under "one of the most beautiful skies in Italy", awarded by Astronomitaly, the network of Astronomical tourism. Guided by astro tourist experts, guests will explore the night sky constellations, navigating through stars, galaxies, planets, and nebulae using state-of-the-art telescopes for an unforgettable celestial journey.

On the second day of the Paris to Tuscany itinerary, the hotel's courtyard comes alive with the 'Festa del Villaggio,' a weekly convivial village celebration mirroring the traditions of Tuscany

ABOUT VENICE SIMPLON-ORIENT-EXPRESS, A BELMOND TRAIN,

The original icon of the rails, Venice Simplon-Orient-Express, A Belmond Train, Europe has been at the forefront of luxury railway travel for nearly half a century, since its first journey in May 1982. The history of this legendary train began in 1977, when Belmond's founder, James B. Sherwood, bought two original Art Deco sleeping cars at a Sotheby's auction in Monte Carlo with the ambition to bring back to life the 'golden age of travel' with the Venice Simplon-Orient-Express train. An enduring symbol of luxury, today the train operates between March and December. It features 16 painstakingly restored 1920s and 1930s carriages, inviting guests to surrender to the journey as it criss-crosses Europe's most dramatic landscapes and uncovers some of the world's most fabled cities, such as Vienna, Rome, Florence, Paris, Venice and Istanbul. On board, guests can choose between three different accommodation categories - characterful Historic Cabins; lavish newly launched Suites; and opulent Grand Suites; indulge in refined dining by Michelin-starred French Chef Jean Imbert in the colourful restaurant carriages and enjoy an evening of late-night revelry with live performances and handcrafted cocktails in the famous Bar Car '3674'.

ABOUT CASTELLO DI CASOLE, A BELMOND HOTEL, TUSCANY

A former 10th century castle, Castello di Casole, A Belmond Hotel, Tuscany retains the ambience of a private country house, with 39 suites. It is a gateway to the wonders of rural Italy – rolling hills, olive groves, and vineyards – as well as Tuscan towns Siena, Florence and San Gimignano. The property's identity is deeply rooted in its agricultural past, stretching back to 7th Century BC, with Etruscan artefacts found across the 3,200 acres of land. These are on display throughout the hotel, most prevalent across the Essere spa, housed in the estate's former wine cellars with barrel vaulted ceilings and restored stone walls. The property's cuisine is a celebration of its surroundings, with a farm-to-table concept and a focus on simple and fresh produce, cultivated in the Orti del Castello – the hotel's vegetable garden. Tosca offers guests a fine dining experience whilst Emporio del Castello promotes authentic Tuscan dining, and for the more casual poolside moment, there is the Castello Grill. The region's famous landscape can be discovered through a range of activities, from stargazing, hiking and biking to wine tasting and truffle hunting. Guests can opt for secluded Etruscan luxury in the two recently opened private villas - Villa Thesan and Villa Usil. Inspired by the estate's heritage, both villas reflect the codes of Tuscan tradition and boast outstanding views of the surrounding countryside.
