

PALACIO NAZARENAS AND RIO SAGRADO WELCOMES THEIR GUESTS TO CUSCO

Cusco, October, 6th 2020.- Palacio Nazarenas and Rio Sagrado reopen their doors to welcome their guests and invite them to feel the energy of the city of Cusco and to take time to relax immersed in the nature of the Urubamba Valley.

Located in the heart of the ancient Inca capital, Palacio Nazarenas is a luxurious haven within the city that allows its guests to reconnect with the contemporary charm of Cusco from their own palace. Surrounded by majestic mountains on the banks of the Urubamba River, Rio Sagrado is the most captivating setting to reconnect with the magic of the Sacred Valley and enjoy a unique stay for all the senses.

Alfresco dining

The timeless walls and patios at Palacio Nazarenas create the ideal atmosphere to enjoy a morning fresh air in the city from the room terrace during breakfast and to dine under the starry sky of the city, with the best view of the artistic district of San Blas. While staying in Rio Sagrado, a scenario that evokes enchantment for its colorful gardens, perfectly designed to deliver the most satisfying experiences of calm and relaxation, guests will delight in having a picnic lunch overlooking the river, taste the incomparable flavors of a traditional pachamanca, at the time children play feeding the baby alpacas.

Sparkling moments

A moment for happiness and to celebrate life under the sunbeam of the city with a glass of champagne in the pool or to taste the local fruits and herbs of the valley to make delicious combinations of fresh juices to start a day filled with energy.

Good Life

Experience the healing power of nature on a hike to the natural salt pools of Maras to enjoy the first lights of the Valley or to relax in a private meditation yoga session next to the pool of Palacio Nazarenas.

Respecting the rules of this new normal, the Belmond hotels have incorporated strict biosecurity protocols, supported by the international certifier SGS in order to take care of their guests' and workers' health. Capacity control in public areas, the delivery of safety kits in the rooms, and alfresco experience.

Additionally, the use of technology has been incorporated through an application that helps reduce the contact risks, to make information about hotel services immediately available, and to speed the check-in and check-out processes without losing the essence of the service.

Palacio Nazarenas and Rio Sagrado are the ideal wellness escape to relive moments of happiness inspired by the nature of the Sacred Valley and the fresh air of the city of Cusco.
