THE CONDE NAST TRAVELER MAGAZINE RECOGNIZES PALACIO NAZARENAS IN THE GOLD LIST 2021

Lima, december 2020.- Located in Cusco, Palacio Nazarenas has become the favorite hotel of luxury travelers from around the world. This is reflected in the results obtained in the Conde Nast Traveler magazine, where it has been the only hotel located in Peru, included among the best hotels and resorts of "CONDE NAST TRAVELER'S 2021 GOLD LIST."

Palacio Nazarenas was included in the category of "The best hotels and resorts in Mexico and South America" due to being considered a privileged place in the wonderful city of Cusco. The hotel is a gem of Peruvian hotels, it is full of surprising details in every corner of the property and its elegant and historical structure make your stay an unbeatable experience.

The editors of the magazine considered it of singular beauty and praised its services such as the baths with Andean herbs, recognized for their healing properties; and oxygen in each room to help your guests acclimatize to the more than 3,000 meters of altitude in which they are. In addition, they emphasized its origin as a convent and the characteristics of the Inca past that converge in the luxurious aesthetics of the hotel without losing its identity.

This recognition shows Belmond's commitment to offering unique experiences in captivating destinations such as Cusco, maintaining strict quality standards, prioritizing the well-being of its guests. Enjoy this property and the experience of Palacio Nazarenas with very attractive rates for the local market.
